Good Roads Party Visits Westerly

Yokum Experts Reach Connecticut Monday Night—
Town Has Moving Picture Craze—Maudeville De M. Hall Gets Two Years in State Prison—Pember Back to High School.

Four automobiles bearing the Yokum good roads party of eighteen arrived in Westerly from Providence Monday afternoon, accompanied in four automobiles by the Rhode Island road commission. The party is particularly interested in advancing the good roads movement and has been traveling about the country since Sept. 18 at the expense of B. F. Yokum, chairman of the executive committee of the Rock Island and 'Frisco lines, and an enthusiast in good road work. The tour will be concluded Oct. 3 and it is expected that the information gained by the members of the party will be put to practical use at and near their home towns.

The Yokum party is made up as follows: G. A. Cole, president of the Farmers' union of Arkansas, Fayetteville, Ark.; M. F. Dickinson, secretary of the same organization, Conway, Ark.; J. F. Harbert, president of the Farmers' union of Louisiana, China, La.; J. N. DeLoach, secretary of the same society, Winfield, La.; Freeman R. Smith, vice president of the Farmers' union of Oklahoma, Canadian, Okla.; J. P. Connors, president of the Oklahoma state board of agriculture, Guthrie, Okla.; H. Hudson, representing the Oklahoma good roads commission of Oklahoma City; S. J. Hampton, associate editor of an Oklahoma newspaper in Oklahoma City; J. W. Thurman, road commissioner from Cook county, Texas, representative of the Farmers' union, Gainesville, and representatives of Mr. Yokum.

In Providence Monday morning the visitors were received by officials of the state board of public roads at the railway station, where the party spent the night on their special car. Signed. This car will go through to New Haven and will meet the party there. The tour of inspection of the roads of Rhode Island commenced at 10 o'clock and from Providence the route was: Pawtucket, Bristol, Westerly, Portsmouth, Middletown and Newport, across the ferry to Saugus, then to Narragansett Pier, where lunch was served with the state road board as hosts. From Narragansett Pier the trip was through South Kingstown, Charlestown and Westerly to the Connecticut line, where they were met by representatives of good roads work in Connecticut, and continued to New London, where they spent the night.

Patrick Higgins, blacksmith's helper employed at the New England Granite company's plant, had a narrow escape from death by suffocation Monday morning. While in the sink, which opens in the rear, he had an epileptic fit and fell backward into the deep fifth and was almost submerged. He was seen to fall by a fellow workman and was rescued in an unconscious condition. He was short while regained consciousness and was taken to his home and received the attention of a physician.

The moving picture shows have got such a hold upon some people in this section that now they are so anxious to get to the show on Monday nights, paydays, that they do not have the time to stop and see the butcher, the baker, and candlestick maker, until later in the week. One grocer tells as a fact that not long ago a customer came to the store with his two children. He was short while regained consciousness and was taken to his home and received the attention of a physician.

There seems to be lack of interest in football in the Westerly High school at the present time. The excuse is made that as there is no interscholastic league there is no occasion for a football team. This is answered by the fact that there has been a league only during the past two seasons, and that prior to that time Westerly was well represented on the gridiron and there is no valid reason why a good team should not be available the coming season.

Maudeville De Marigny Hall, alias Charles W. Stevens, the black sheep of a well known New York family, was sentenced to a term of two years in the Rhode Island state prison by Judge Stearns in the superior court at Kingston Monday. There were four indictments against Hall for forging and uttering checks of the Fifth Avenue bank at Watch Hill during the past summer. He pleaded not guilty and was sentenced to twelve months in the county jail.

The two embezzlement cases against Joseph S. Grills were continued to Tuesday. The motion to dismiss the case against Charles A. Fuller for disorderly conduct in the village of Arcadia, because complainant did not give surety for costs and dupliately complaint was denied and exceptions noted. In the case of George E. Carpenter, overseer of the poor of the town of Hopkinton, against Wilfred Collins of Westerly on the charge of bastardy was in the opinion of the assistant attorney general, not a criminal but a civil action and therefore not within his province. The judge suggested Seventy-five Floral Forms at Funeral of Richard A. Phillips—Miss Ballard Has Surprise Party—Village Notes.

Richard Albert, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips of the Little Flat, died Friday after 4 days' illness with croup. He was a bright, winsome child and will be greatly missed by his parents and many friends. The seventy-five beautiful floral forms among which was a choice form from the M. E. Sunday school class, attended the love and sympathy of relatives and friends. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2.30 at the house. The Rev. Theodore Bauck of Norwich offered prayer; the Manchester quartette of Tataville rendered two hymns in an effective manner. The bearers were Lawrence Broscher, Frank Treckman, Bernhard Smith and Louis Rader. Mourners were present from West Hoboken, Natick, R. I. and Tataville. Burial was in Yantic cemetery.

Surprise Party.

Miss Exilda Ballard was pleasantly surprised by a number of friends Saturday evening. A most enjoyable time was spent by all. Games were played, followed by refreshments. There were present Miss Rose Lamoline, Agnes Lamoline, Joseph Deschamps, William Morrisette, Fred Morris, Emily Despathy, Fred Goyette, George Cooney, Lester Smith, Ovilas Ballard, Wilfred Ballard, Samuel Chaboth, Albert Burdick, Fred Burdick, Henry Burdick, Harry Hilderbrand.

Personal Mention.

Melville Cote has gone to Columbia college, New York, to study pharmacy. Mrs. P. Cote is spending a month in New York. George Buteau of New York was the guest of his father, Postmaster George Buteau, over Sunday. Thomas Bamford and Charles Garrett are spending the week in New York and will attend the Hudson-Fulton celebration.

LEDYARD CAUCUSES.

Both Parties Place Candidates in Nomination for October Election.

Both the republican and democratic caucuses have been held in Ledyard for the nomination of town officers to be voted for at the annual town meeting, Oct. 4.

Maynard. Constables—James A. Stoddard, Horace H. Main, Adolph F. Holmberg, Joseph G. Gallop. Grand jurors—Thomas P. Norman, Alfred G. Montgomery, Frank G. Maynard. Collector of town taxes—Asa J. Sheldon.

Democratic Ticket.

Selectmen—Luther C. Gray, Samuel B. Hill. Assessors—Austin S. Lamb, one year; Calvin R. Main, two years; Albertus Maynard, three years. Members of board of relief—Alfred J. Clark, Charles A. Gray. Constables—John F. Cooper, Ernest Lamb, Alfred Bennett, Joseph N. Holdridge. Grand jurors—Edward H. Haskell, Courtland Lamb, James B. Gray. Collector of town taxes—Charles D. Daboll. Town clerk—William I. Allyn. Town treasurer—William I. Allyn. Auditor—Alfred J. Clark. School committee—Samuel E. Holdridge, William F. White, Calvin R. Main. Registrar of voters—Joseph E. Holdridge. Tree warden—James N. Holdridge.

Dahlia Named for Cook.

The initial namesake of Dr. Cook is a huge maroon dahlia of the chrysanthemum variety, which is one of the sensations of the dahlia show held by the American Institute of the City of New York in the Berkeley Lyceum building this week. Although various and sundry cigars, babies, and even new varieties of vegetables will doubtless share the honors of bearing Dr. Cook's name, the distinction of being the first to do so belongs to this plant or seedling, produced by J. T. Lovett of Little Silver, N. J.—New York Telegram.
